What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

The Parish Council is a public authority and has certain powers and obligations. Most of your personal data is processed for compliance with a legal obligation which includes the discharge of the council's statutory functions and powers. Sometimes when exercising these powers or duties it is necessary to process personal data of residents or people using the Parish Council's services. We will always take into account your interests and rights. This Privacy Notice sets out your rights and the council's obligations to you.

We may process personal data if it is necessary for the performance of a contract with you, or to take steps to enter into a contract. An example of this would be processing your data in connection with the booking of the Old School.

Sometimes the use of your personal data requires your consent. We will first obtain your consent to that use. An example of this would be to send you communications which you have not yet requested e.g. Information and updates on the Neighbourhood Plan or other projects or initiatives.

Sharing your personal data

This section provides information about the third parties with whom the Parish Council may share your personal data. These third parties have an obligation to put in place appropriate security measures and will be responsible to you directly for the manner in which they process and protect your personal data. It is likely that we will need to share your data with some or all of the data controllers listed above under the heading "Other data controllers the Parish Council works with"

How long do we keep your personal data?

We will keep some records permanently if we are legally required to do so (these records will be archived at the Records Centre in Chippenham as necessary). We may keep some other records for an extended period of time. For example, it is currently best practice to keep financial records for a minimum period of 8 years to support HMRC audits or provide tax information. We may have legal obligations to retain some data in connection with our statutory obligations as a public authority. The Parish Council is permitted to retain data in order to defend or pursue claims. In some cases the law imposes a time limit for such claims (for example 3 years for personal injury claims or 6 years for contract claims). We will retain some personal data for this purpose as long as we believe it is necessary to be able to defend or pursue a claim. In general, we will endeavour to keep data only for as long as we need it. This means that we will delete it when it is no longer needed.
